

The diagram shows a rectangular layout with a light blue border. Inside this border, there is a red border. The space between the red and blue borders is the bleed area. A horizontal blue line is drawn across the width of the page, and a horizontal red line is drawn near the top edge. Two arrows point from the red line towards the top corners of the page. A long horizontal arrow points from the blue line to the left edge, and another long horizontal arrow points from the blue line to the right edge.
